

TECHNOLOGY CONSULTING

Job Description

EY Technology Consulting is a part of the EY Consulting practice, leveraging key technologies, and committed to solving clients' most challenging issues and addressing their priorities. Through our immense talent, technology tools as well as innovative solutions, we work with our clients to transform their business and help them navigate through the next wave of technology trends and ambitions.

What differentiates us

Largest and fastest growing Technology Consulting practice in India supporting the transformation agenda of our clients. Digital and emerging technology capabilities such as Blockchain and IoT, core to our offering across SLs and industries. Hands-on exposure to navigate through disruption caused by megatrends with the opportunity to future-proof your company. Inspiring the next generation of account driven, client centric, solution-enabled consultants to deliver exceptional client service. Ability to work on radically different business models.

The opportunity

We offer a broad range of development opportunities. From day one we'll encourage you to define your aspirations and help you achieve them. We do this through formal training, on-the-job support, coaching, and rewarding challenges that will stretch you and help you grow.

As your career develops, we offer numerous ways to move up, move on or change direction – all within the EY organization. It's important to us that our people are empowered to use their skills and experience in a range of areas, not just across services and sectors but around the world. Wherever your aspirations meet the needs of our clients and our business, we will support you in making a change. You can take your career wherever you wish – whether through varied internships, continuing education, or extended positions overseas. You'll be working with leading client organizations, including some of the world's top and most entrepreneurial businesses.

Skills and attributes for success
